SUMMONED TO APPEAR BEFORE GRAND JURY

Speculation Rife as to Outcome of Liquor Cases in Winchester-Funeral of Dr. James Battle Avirett l'o-Day.

the country the rebels have appears the substance of the Yusquay Gomez has been proclaimed as their chief, even Zapata having announced that he will case only when the fugitive ex-President Cabinet minister is placed in the prasidency.

How many rebels there are in arms no one knows, but the news of the past week indicates that the insurgents force is increasing rapidly.

The government has placed an order in Germany for 160-090 ritles and a big order in Belgium for cartridges.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Winchester, Va., February 18—A large number of men have been summonded to appear before the grand jury of the Corporation Court when court is convened to-morrow morning by Judge T. W. Harrison, and speculation is rife as to what the grand jury will do with half a dozen or more people who wer recently convicted in Police Court of selling liquor without Federal, State or local licenses, and who have noted appeals to the Corporation Court. Many arrests have been made for alleged liquor violations since Winchester voted out the galoons a number of years ago, and the majority of the accussed ones have been convicted in Police Court, but Corporation Court juries have in numerous instances disagreed, the cases sinally resoluting in being noile prossed.

The remains of Rev. James Battle Avirett, D. D., who died suddenly of heart disease on Friday, in the Western Maryland Hospital at Cumberland, Md., where he had been living for anumber of years with his son, John W.
Avirett, will be interred in Mount Hebron Cemetery, this city, tomore, and the late Philip Williams, a widelay known Winchesser lawyer. Dr.
Avirett was chaplain of the brisade commanded by General Turner Ashby
